From the Family Pictorial, New York, August, 1859.

The Ast of Saving—Benjamin Franklin, in his writings tells us that "Poor Echard" declared man the State Officer, being Northwestern Bank, then secured by deposit of Va., Wheeling... 1 discountered by deposit of Va., Wheeling... 2 discountered by ounce of prevention was worth a pound of care," and the dear, good old man was right. He, Poor is not done they are un. Va., Wythwelle. . 1 de Richard, would insist upon meneing everything as soon as it was broken, and thereby saved much trouble and loss from enlargement of the injury. One day, a witty woman said to a venerable Quiker, noted for his strenuous adherence to the principles of "Poor Richard,"

"You are always for mending, and patchlog, and yet in spite of your doctrine, that "a strich in time saves nine," I'il lay you something pretty that a rent or a hole will wear beice as long as a paich." "but garments with patches will wear thrice as long as with rents or holes "

What would Poor Richard or Berjamin Franklin have said if Spalding's Prepared Glue had been in existence during their time? It is certainly the great | Collins & Co. est economise r over introduced to the public, and its remerkable tenacity makes it a reliable method of saving. If you have a broken tooking-glass, bedstead, table, chair, basket, mouiding, or in fact any article of ernament or of use that glue would adhere to at all, this new preparation will rejoin the broken parts firmly, forever. It is contained in neat little bottles, free from smell, and always ready for immediate use. Among all the thousands who take the Pictorial there is not a single one who does not at this moment stand in need of a bottle of Spalding's iune13-2w

The City Press.

All the city papers contain a telegraphic dispatch from St. Louis, telling of a train of cars on the Belleville Railroad, which had a whole parcel of delegates to the Baltimore Convention on board, and which took it into its head to run off the track with them, and make an everlasting smash of the entire pile. Accordingly, it picked out a soft place to fall, and off it went. Nobody was much killed. it seems, but Douglas will have several triends less in the Convention. The affair is supposed to have been the work of political ncendiaries. No arrests have been made, but ispicion points strongly to YANCEY, of Alaama, BARKSDALE, of Mississippi, and one or two others, who

It pays a handsome and wellmerited compliment to that excellent school, and to the able address delivered at the close of the commencement exercises by the Rev. Dr. Husron, the accomplished editor of the Home Circle. As not more than two, at most three, of our readers in each county are engaged in "Taking the Census," we need not dwell upon the subject. But before we leave trie, Craick, Warren, Godman, Drake, Caldit we may as well say that we expect to be busy all the year, and don't want to be bothered with the census-taker, and hence, will answer here such questions as the Cen-

The Union .- It would seem that the Union has determined to let political affairs take care of themselves until the Baltimore Convention shall have done its do. In the number before us are just twenty-four lines on political subjects. This is calculated to induce the country Democracy to believe that their great party, which they have always been taught to regard as immortal, is, as Carlyle transcendentally observes, "played attention of the ladies is particularly requested. out." But it doesn't make any difference if they do entertain such a belief, for it is fully warranted by the facts in the case. The Gazette.-Our neutral and indepen ontemporary opens the ball with a brief article on "The Negro as he 15," which is intended, we presume, for the enlightenment of his readers among the Esquimaux and Greenlanders, whose climate and soil are not adapted to the raising of negroes, and who, although they may know what the negro used to be, have no very definite idea as to what he is now. Our neighbor also has an article on "Counter Streams." Not having read the article, we can't say positively what streams he has reference to, but suppose it is the streams of "Newsom" and "Kelso" that flow across the counter at the nearest grocery. conditation states me

MRS. HOLCOMBE'S SCHOOL On Tuesday evening last, a very large audience assembled in the basement room of the First Presbyterian Church to witness the commencement exercises of Mrs. Hollcombe's school for girls, a flourishing and very popular institution situated on Summer street, between Church and Broad. The exercises were of a deeply interesting character, the young ladies, without an exception, acquitting themselves in a manner highly creditable both to themselves and their teachers.

A very interesting and instructive address, on the moral, mental and physical education of the young, was delivered on the occasion by the Rev. Dr. Huston, editor of the Home Circle. As Dr. Huston is known to every reader as a gentleman of brilliant intellectual attainments, and as a most graceful and eloquent speaker, we need only say of his address, that it was in every respect worthy of his reputation as a scholar and an orator. gAt the conclusion of the address, the graduating class of six received their diplomas at ers to kill off Douglas at Bultimore by kill- the hands of Dr. Husron. The diplomas were ing off the North-Western delegates before something entirely new, being ambrotyped they get there, we would earnestly advise all and put in elegant cases. BANQUET TO THE NATIONAL MEDICAL CON VENTION .-- The Hartford Times of the 8th says that the banquet to the members of the National Convention at the State House in New Haven on Thursday night was of the most nagnificent and gorgeous description. The building was magnificently decoratek. In front of the entrance an arch of gas-jets span ned the whole width of the building. Temporary covered entrances led from the porti co to the supper room in the basement. whole interior of the State House was splendidly festooned with streamers and decorated with flags, evergreens, and flowers. Upon the walls appeared in large letters the name of celebrated medical men, as: Lining Moul well, Ramsey, Post, Tully. Hosack, Nathan Smith, Rush, Shippen. Every part of the mmense building was ablaze with light from gas-pipes introduced for the occasion and inese lanterns. The welcoming motto Salutem Plurinam et Plennisimam, appeared above the door of the Superior Court room in which sat at the upper end of the veteranof medicine -- the senior Silliman, Dr. Knight. and others; and received the company as they were introduced, one by one. Before half-past eight o'clock the halls and rooms up stairs and down, were crowded by gentle men and ladies.
